BEARS IN READY FOR CHALLENGE OF FRANK HYDE SHIELD

9 June 2010

While the Bears have not fared as well as fellow foundation club Newtown in 2010, the planets have aligned and the gods have smiled to give the Bears a win last weekend against the Central Coast. This will give North Sydney a shot of confidence for the playing of the Frank Hyde Shield this weekend.

The shield commemorates the late Frank Hyde, the stylish Rugby League centre who played with distinction for the Newtown, North Sydney and Balmain clubs, and who is best remembered as the peerless Rugby League radio broadcaster who dominated the ratings for more than thirty years.
